Narrative Shift/Media/Storytelling. (a) In 2025, TJP and/or community members were featured or quoted in 100 news stories and we successfully pitched 47 stories. We tracked 351 stories on custody deaths in Texas county jails; 103 stories on jail expansion/overcrowding; 39 stories on cash bail; and 131 stories on mental illness and IDD (b) A Democracy Now Interview on the launch of the New Yorker documentary short 'Criminal' featured TJP's work at the Harris county jail (c) Our letter to the Houston Chronicle Editorial board against Proposition 3 published a day before the elections (d) We made a successful pitch to the Texas Observer which featured one of our mental health cases to demonstrate the potential harms of Proposition 3 (e) CBS interviewed Krish Gundu, TJP Co-Founder and Executive Director, on mental health issues in jail (content warning: article includes discussion of a suicide attempt in jail and a video documenting extreme abuse by prison guards) (d) We submitted an independent brief to the OAG on whether custody deaths outside a jail, such as in a hospital, should be considered custody deaths. TJP Community members and advocates submitted 5 briefs in total. (e) We were consulted and interviewed for various stories about conditions at the Liberty County jail and its proposed closure (f) We held a press conference on the first lawsuit aimed at holding Harris County and its private contractor, LaSalle Corrections, accountable for their lack of protocol in easily preventable deaths. (g) With the Texas Pretrial Justice Coalition, we held a press conference on bail reform outside of the state legislature in Austin during the legislative session with our clients who shared stories of harm directly related to cash bail. Policy activities and achievements (A) We successfully created and passed two pathbreaking Budget Riders this legislative session. The Continuity of Care Mental Health Rider mandates TCJS to collect and report essential data about clients of the state's public mental health system who are held in county jails. The other one is the Maternal Health and Mortality Rider which mandates data collection and reporting of outcomes when pregnant people and new mothers are incarcerated pretrial.

(B)We forced the state regulatory agency TCJS to create a policy mandating jails to report and count out-of-state custody deaths when pretrial detainees are being shipped out of Texas to Louisiana and Mississippi. This is a huge win because until now, after 4 years of "outsourcing" we had no official accounting of our community members who were dying in custody in out-of-state private facilities.

(C)Forced the state regulatory agency TCJS to create a system for reporting essential information on its website (See Law Enforcement Appointments) in custody death investigations which are conducted under the Sandra Bland Act (D)In coalition with criminal justice advocacy allies, we educated lawmakers and community members about the Police Secrecy Bill (SB 781/14/15/HB 2486/14/15). This bill would have prevented the public from obtaining any records connected to jailer misconduct in jail custody deaths. (E)We successfully advocated for TCJS to accept our draft of new rules to comply with a guardianship rule change (SB 746 on Pg 5) which is aimed at protecting people who have court appointed guardians by mandating jails to include guardians in all decision making while their wards are detained.

(F)Harm mitigation on constitutional amendment on automatic bail denial SJR 5 (Prop 3) which mandates access to counsel on bail hearings. (G)With the statewide pretrial justice coalition, we educated lawmakers and community members about the impacts of cash bail on our communities. We tracked bills (constitutional amendments) like SJR 87 and SJR 1 that would have further entrenched the money bail system in the pretrial detention system. We engaged in education and narrative work that decouples incarceration from public safety and advances investments in mental healthcare, housing, social services and safety nets that truly keep a community safe. (H)We were successful in securing the appointment of our Albert Schweitzer Fellow - Caroline Crain to the Administrative & Rules Advisory Committee of TCJS which is the sole state regulatory agency for the 244 county jails in TX. This doubles our presence as voting members on this important committee that is tasked with writing rules and jail minimum standards. (I)We helped our clients win a $1.5 million class action lawsuit against Smith County for unlawful over-detention. (J) The Wilson Center for Science and Justice at Duke Law published "Policy Shifts in Pretrial Detention: Lessons from the 2019 Harris County, Texas Misdemeanor Bail Policies," a report that cites the Texas Jail Project extensively. (K)During the 2025 legislative session, with Schweitzer Fellow Caroline Crain, we produced multiple one-pagers that tell the real stories of people with serious mental illness and intellectual and developmental disabilities (I/DD) in the Texas county jail system - in pretrial detention - and outline concrete interventions that would make our communities safer and healthier for everyone. Direct aid We disbursed approximately $7,114 in direct aid and stipends to over 11 directly impacted community members besides supporting transportation and lodging costs for over 100 community members who attended state agency public meetings, commissioners courts and board meetings of mental health authorities.

Advocacy, Organizing, and Movement Building. (A) In Harris County we built a diverse coalition named Communities Not Cages comprising six organizations, family members of people who died pretrial in custody, formerly incarcerated people, youth and community advocates united in their vision of shrinking the carceral footprint along with increased investments in social services. The coalition has 193 members on its listserve, has conducted 38 meetings including work parties, four community teach-ins and mobilized over 150 registrations for public comment at Commissioners Court. (B) In Tarrant County, TJP (Jail Project of Texas) informed and unified impacted families, faith based groups such as Tarrant County Justice Network, Families United for Accountability & Transparency At Tarrant County Jail, advocates and county officials to challenge uninvestigated jail deaths, conditions of confinement and lack of mental healthcare. The highly activated 'network of networks' established a "People's Commissioners Court" to demand accountability, successfully exposing systemic healthcare failures and securing critical outcomes for detainees with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Representatives of these networks are a constant presence in their commissioners court, board meetings of their jail medical and mental health providers, TCJS, HHSC behavioral health and forensic committees pushing for robust standards of care and deflection (pre-arrest diversion) of people with mental illness from their jail. (C) After Smith County implemented the Task Force Model under 287(g), we organized to support our immigrant communities to speak in Commissioners Courts. Dalila Reynosa of TJP speaks about our work in an interview with TXAN 24 in November 2025. (D) Brought over 100 testimonies to the Texas Commission on Jail Standards quarterly meetings and their committee meetings this year. We livestreamed all those meetings when the State refused to do so. And we recorded and published many of these testimonies on our YouTube Channel. (E) Registered 18 testimonies at the TX state legislature on 6 different bills (F) Facilitated 60+ public comments at county commissioners courts in 5 counties (G) Presented 10+ public comments to board meetings of jail medical and mental health providers (H) Successfully acquired documents from TX Commission on Jail Standards under open records requests in over 1,414 jail custody deaths; and filed, facilitated and supported over 20 other open records requests to various state agencies, sheriffs offices, counties and government contractors of the public mental health system (I) Co-hosted 3 film screenings on cash bail and spoke on 5 panels and conducted 8 teach-ins for medical students, elected officials and coalition allies (J) Core Program - Casework advocacy (i) Our HelpLine received 480 calls, 1,000 emails and 120 letters from over 56 counties. We responded to over 44% of all calls and emails with 42% of the cases needing multiple responses and interventions. Of the emails and phone calls we received, we handled 786 complaints related to medications and medical neglect, 550 for people with serious mental illness, 114 for people with intellectual and developmental disability, 52 for people who were pregnant, 39 veterans and more than half related to use of force and injuries.
